Board Rules Related to Corporation Accreditation

5 I I IAC 6.1-I-6 Accreditation status, school and school corporation

Sec. 6...(c) When schools enrolling at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the students within a school corporation achieve full accreditation status, the state board shall accord the school corporation full accreditation status and award the school corporation a certificate of full accreditation status.

5 I I IAC 6.1-I-13 Action by the state board

Sec. 13. The state board shall accord probationary accreditation status to a school corporation with one (1) or more probationary schools that fail:

- (1) to make progress; or
- (2) to achieve full accreditation status at the end of three (3) years.

5 I I IAC 6.1-I-14 Recommendations to the general assembly

Sec. 14. If a school corporation accorded probationary accreditation status does not raise the level of accreditation of each of its schools that are on probationary accreditation status to full accreditation status within one (1) year, the department shall submit recommendations to the general assembly concerning the operation and administration of the school corporation and the schools within that school corporation.
